This groundbreaking series is the brainchild of renowned educational expert Ronald R. Edmonds, who believed that "the only true measure of success is the amount of impact you have on the lives of others." The Always Leave Them Learning philosophy is founded on the belief that every student has the potential to excel when provided with engaging learning experiences that foster their cognitive, social, and emotional development.

The Pillars of Always Leave Them Learning

The Always Leave Them Learning model rests upon three fundamental pillars:

1. Rigorous Instruction: Challenge students with thought-provoking content and activities that require them to think critically, analyze information, and apply their knowledge in meaningful ways.
2. Relevant Learning: Connect learning to real-world experiences and student interests to make lessons more engaging and relatable.
3. Relationships: Build strong relationships with students based on trust, respect, and mutual support to create a positive and inclusive learning environment.
