Just when all hope seemed lost, a lifeline appeared in the form of Alexander Blackwood, the city's most eligible bachelor and CEO of the renowned Blackwood Industries. With his piercing blue eyes, chiseled jaw, and an aura that exuded power and wealth, Alexander was the embodiment of every woman's fantasy. To Isabella's astonishment, he offered her a proposition that would change her life forever.

Alexander proposed a fake marriage, a union that would shield him from the prying eyes of the media and allow him to focus on a crucial business deal. As Isabella and Alexander's love deepened, an unexpected surprise emerged. Isabella discovered she was pregnant, carrying not one but two tiny lives within her. The revelation sent shockwaves through their already tumultuous world.

The prospect of having children forced them to confront the true nature of their relationship. Was their love strong enough to overcome the obstacles and raise a family together? Or would the weight of their secret crush them beneath its suffocating embrace?

Chapter 4: The Secret Revealed

The day of reckoning arrived when the paparazzi caught wind of Isabella's pregnancy. Headlines screamed their forbidden affair, revealing their secret to the world. The scandal rocked New York's elite circles, tarnishing Alexander's reputation and threatening to destroy Isabella's dreams.

In the face of overwhelming adversity, Isabella and Alexander stood by each other, their love tested to its very limits. They faced the consequences of their choices head-on, determined to protect their unborn children and fight for their right to happiness.
