About the Book

Gumbo Goes Downtown is a picture book for homeless and runaway children. It tells the story of a young boy named Gumbo who runs away from home and ends up living on the streets of New Orleans. Gumbo meets a variety of people who help him to survive, including a homeless man named Mr. Brown, a runaway girl named Lily, and a social worker named Ms. Jones. Through his interactions with these people, Gumbo learns that there are people who care about him and that he is not alone.

Gumbo Goes Downtown is a powerful and moving story that will help children who are experiencing homelessness or running away to feel seen and understood. It is also a valuable resource for parents, teachers, and social workers who work with children who are experiencing homelessness or running away.
