When it comes to planning events in New Orleans, there is no one more sought-after than Kevin Belton. With over 20 years of experience, Kevin has planned countless weddings, parties, and corporate events, all of which have been praised for their creativity, attention to detail, and impeccable execution.

Kevin's passion for event planning began at a young age. He grew up in New Orleans, and was always fascinated by the city's vibrant culture and love of celebration. After graduating from college, Kevin worked for a number of event planning companies before starting his own business in 2000.

Since then, Kevin has become one of the most respected event planners in the city. He has planned events for a wide range of clients, including celebrities, politicians, and business leaders. Kevin is also known for his work with non-profit organizations, and has helped to raise millions of dollars for important causes.

What sets Kevin apart from other event planners is his deep understanding of New Orleans culture. He knows how to create events that are truly authentic and reflect the unique spirit of the city. Kevin also has a knack for finding the perfect venues and vendors, and for working within any budget.

If you are planning an event in New Orleans, Kevin Belton is the perfect person to help you create a celebration that will be truly unforgettable. Here are just a few of the reasons why you should choose Kevin Belton for your event planning needs:
