

Sriradha Marlies Kemptner: A Lifetime of Devotion and Spiritual Growth

Sriradha Marlies Kemptner is a renowned spiritual teacher and a beloved disciple of Swami Bhaktivedanta Narayana Maharaja, a prominent Vaishnava guru in the Gaudiya Vaishnava tradition. Born in Austria in 1951, Marlies Kemptner's life has been a journey of profound spiritual growth and service to others. Through her teachings, writings, and personal example, she has inspired countless seekers around the world to embrace the path of bhakti-yoga, the path of devotion to God.

Marlies Kemptner grew up in a devout Catholic family but felt a deep longing for something more. At the age of 18, she encountered the teachings of Swami Prabhupada, the founder of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON). Drawn to the bhakti-yoga philosophy, she traveled to India in 1974 and met her spiritual master, Swami Bhaktivedanta Narayana Maharaja. Under his guidance, she began her formal training in bhakti-yoga and received her spiritual name, Sriradha.

Sriradha Marlies Kemptner's life has been characterized by her unwavering devotion to her guru and to God. She has dedicated herself to understanding and practicing the teachings of the Gaudiya Vaishnava tradition, particularly the Bhagavad-gita and the Srimad-Bhagavatam. Through her spiritual practices, including chanting, meditation, and studying the scriptures, she has experienced a deep transformation in her consciousness.
